PREAMBLE:

We, Arvind group of companies (“Arvind”), respect the dignity of all employees and are committed to providing a safe workplace that enables employees to work, in a conducive environment, free from gender bias and sexual harassment. When it comes to ethical conduct, all of us at Arvind distinguish ourselves by the way in which we handle ourselves every day on the job. Towards this, it is essential that each employee deals with their colleagues and third parties with full fairness and respect and realizes that his/her behaviour will be attributable to Arvind and can affect its inward and outward reputation.

SCOPE:

1. All persons employed at Arvind for any work on a regular, temporary, ad hoc or daily wage basis, either directly or through an agent, including a contractor, whether for remuneration or not, or working on a voluntary basis or otherwise and includes a co-worker, contract worker, probationer, trainee, apprentice or called by any other such name.
2. Third parties and/or visitors at all business units or functions of Arvind, including foreign nationals.

OBJECTIVE / PURPOSE:

This policy has been framed with a view to:

1. To promote a workplace based on equality and respect.
2. To provide a safe and congenial work environment.
3. To prevent sexual harassment.
4. To provide the procedure for the redressal of complaints pertaining to sexual harassment.
5. To raise awareness around the implications and outcome of sexual harassment.
6. To ensure protection against retaliation to complainants, witnesses, committee members and other employees involved in prevention and complaint resolution.
7. To curb abetment in any act of sexual harassment.
8. To prohibit workplace sexual harassment through an effectively communicated policy.

REFERENCE TO OTHER POLICIES:

Besides the 2013 Act, this policy should be read in conjunction with following policies of the company (hereinafter referred to as “Other Policies”):

1. Code of Conduct
2. Whistle-blower policy;
3. Policy on employee discipline;
4. Any other policies of Arvind, whether included in the above list or not.

Policy incorporates the legislation titled The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, (defined as “Act”) and its Rules (defined as “Rules”) notified and published on 9th December 2013.

2. Procedure:

For complaints raised by an aggrieved woman:

- i. How to file a complaint: An Aggrieved Woman may lodge her complaint in writing or via e- mail with the AIC as constituted under the Act. If the complaint is received via email, it should be affixed with signature to certify it as original / true copy.
- ii. Anonymous complaints will not be entertained by the AIC
- iii. The Act provides protection against sexual harassment of women at the workplace. All complaints made by Aggrieved Woman falling under the scope of this policy shall be dealt with by the AIC. The parties shall not be allowed to bring in any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the AIC.
- iv. When can an Aggrieved Woman file a complaint?
Any Aggrieved Woman can file a complaint of sexual harassment, in writing to the AIC, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of incident or in case of a series of incidents, within a period of 3 (three) months from the date of last incident.
This period may be extended for further 3 (three) months by the AIC for reasons to be recorded in writing if it is satisfied with the circumstance that prevented the Aggrieved Woman to file a complaint within the said period.
- v. Conciliation by the AIC
The Aggrieved Woman may choose to adopt the informal process to resolve her complaint/experience of workplace sexual harassment. In such a case, AIC shall explore enabling ways to address the complaint. This can include counselling, educating, orienting, or warning the RE to promptly stop the unwelcome behaviour. At no point, the AIC will advise the Aggrieved Woman to resolve the matter directly with the RE. Where such an informal process is successful, such resolution must be recorded in the presence of both the Aggrieved Woman and the RE.
- vi. Inquiry Process of the AIC
 - a. At the time of filing the complaint, the Aggrieved Woman shall submit to the AIC, six copies of the complaint along with supporting documents and the names and addresses of the witnesses.
 - b. On receipt of the complaint, post a preliminary review, the AIC shall forward one copy of the complaint within 7 (seven) days to the RE for his response.
 - c. The RE must submit his response within 10 (ten) working days.
 - d. Post receipt of the response, the AIC shall follow the principles of natural justice and conduct a thorough inquiry into the complaint giving both parties equal opportunity to make representations and provide evidence.
 - e. The AIC can terminate an inquiry upon a notice of 15 (fifteen) days if the Aggrieved Woman, or the RE, fail to appear for 3 (three) consecutive proceedings conducted by the AIC.
 - f. The AIC shall have 90 (ninety) days to complete its inquiry.

Policy incorporates the legislation titled The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, (defined as “Act”) and its Rules (defined as “Rules”) notified and published on 9th December 2013.

- g. On the completion of its inquiry, the AIC shall provide a report of its findings to the employer, within a period of 10 (ten) days from the date of completion of the inquiry and such report must be made available to the concerned parties.
- h. Management has 60 (sixty) days to execute the AIC recommendation.

vii. Interim Action

During the pendency of the inquiry, and on a request made by the Aggrieved Woman, the AIC may take any of the following interim actions:

- a. To offer medical help and counselling to the Aggrieved Woman, if required.
- b. To transfer the Aggrieved Woman and/or the RE to an alternate work location (work from home, another office, another floor etc.).
- c. To grant leave to the Aggrieved Woman up to a period of 3 (three) months, which would be in addition to the entitled leaves of such Aggrieved Woman.
- d. To suspend the RE for defined period or until the inquiry proceedings are completed
- e. To ensure that the reporting relationship is suspended
- f. To ensure that the Aggrieved Woman is not subject to appraisal by the RE
- g. In case, RE is an outsider, ensure that the RE shall not be allowed to enter Arvind premises except for the purpose of attending the proceedings.

For complaints raised by CT (who is not an aggrieved woman)

The CT must complain in writing. The CT must provide all relevant information to facilitate an inquiry. Details of complaints will be kept confidential and HR will conduct inquiries with regard to complaints made. Such an enquiry will not be conducted by AIC. All the parties involved will be given an opportunity of being heard.

If, on inquiry, the complaint is found to be genuine, action will be taken against the RE. In such a case, HR can recommend action for sexual harassment as misconduct in accordance with the Other Policies as applicable to the RE. If HR arrives at the conclusion that the allegation has not been proved, it may recommend that no action has to be taken against the RE.

CONSENSUAL RELATIONS

Arvind discourages any kind of romantic or sexual relationships amongst employees at workplace, as this could lead to conflicts at work. However, if any such relationship, particularly between any member at supervisory capacity and his/her staff (any employee who reports directly/indirectly to the person) develops, both the member at supervisory capacity and staff shall notify to HR of such a relation. This is to ensure that the reporting chain is altered and that no direct or indirect reporting relationship continues.

APPROACHING THE POLICE

A CT is not barred from referring the matter to any other appropriate authority including law enforcement agencies, such as the police, as the CT may deem fit. In case of an Aggrieved Woman, Arvind will support to file the same with the police upon request.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

On conclusion of the inquiry, if the allegation/s against the RE is/are proved, appropriate action against the guilty may be recommended. Such a recommendation must be in line with the Act or the Other Policies and may include:

- a. Written warning
- b. Written apology
- c. Reprimand/Censure
- d. Withholding of promotion
- e. Withholding of pay rise or increments
- f. Terminating the RE from service
- g. Undergoing a counselling session
- h. Carrying out community service
- i. Monetary compensation
- j. Community service

GUIDELINE TO BE KEPT IN MIND BY AIC WHILE RECOMMENDING ACTION

1. To conduct the inquiry as per the principles of natural justice and in a confidential manner.
2. AIC members to be intimated of meetings and agenda in writing and/or electronic communication by the Presiding Officer. Minutes of all meetings to be recorded, confirmed, and adopted.
3. In cases where the AIC has recommended to Management for compensation to be made to the CT, then the said amount shall be deducted from the salary of the RE and paid to the CT or her legal heir/s.
4. In case of complaint by an Aggrieved Woman, if the RE fails to pay the sum referred as above, the AIC may forward the order for recovery of the sum as an arrear of land revenue to the concerned District Officer.
5. Where the AIC arrives at a conclusion that the allegation against the RE is malicious, the AIC may recommend to the Management to start an inquiry on the suspected malicious complaint.
6. Where the AIC arrives at a conclusion that during the enquiry any witness has given false evidence or produced any forged or misleading document, it shall recommend to the Management to take appropriate action.

MANAGEMENT TO ENSURE:

1. In case the complaint is filed by an Aggrieved Woman, the Management will provide assistance to the Aggrieved Woman if she so chooses to file a police complaint in relation to the offence under the India Penal Code or any other law for the time being in force.
2. The Management will act upon the recommendations of AIC within 60 (sixty) days of its receipt.
3. The AIC will submit an annual report to the Management outlined in the Act and it is the responsibility of the Management to ensure that the said annual report is also filed with the District Officer as per the format applicable.
4. The Management will direct HR/Personnel/Administrative Department to ensure to display at conspicuous places the guidelines as given in section 19(b) of the Act.
5. The Management will direct and monitor the HR/Personnel/Administrative Department to create awareness amongst employee material on sexual harassment in the following manner: -
 - i. Training cum Awareness session for all employees
 - ii. Training cum Awareness session for AIC members

	HR Policy	Classification:	Internal

- iii. Training cum Awareness session for Human Resource teams and Senior Management.
- 6. The Management will assist in ensuring the attendance of the RE and witnesses before the HR/ AIC as the case may be.
- 7. The Management will monitor timely submission of reports. For this, the Management will conduct periodic update meetings with the AIC and HR/Personnel/Administrative Department to ensure that the said policy is being implemented in letter and spirit.

APPEALS:

If CT or RE are aggrieved from the recommendations of HR/ AIC, they may prefer an appeal to the court or tribunal in accordance with the provisions of the service rules applicable to the said person or where no such service rules exist then, without prejudice to provisions contained in any other law for the time being in force, the person aggrieved may prefer an appeal. The appeal will lie before the Appellate Authority notified under clause (a) of section 2 of the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act, 1946.

STRICT CONFIDENTIALITY:

The identity and addresses of the CT, RE and witnesses, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations and the action taken by the Management will not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner. In case any person entrusted with the duty to handle or deal with the complaint, engage in inquiry, make recommendations for action to be taken, or any person who appears as a witness in such proceedings, contravenes the provisions of strict confidentiality, disciplinary action will be taken against such an individual.

PROTECTION AGAINST RETALIATION:

Regardless of the outcome of the complaint made in good faith, the CT, or any person providing information, or any witness, shall be protected from any form of retaliation. No unfair treatment will be meted out to the CT lodging the complaint in good faith. While dealing with complaints of sexual harassment, the AIC shall ensure that the CT or the witness are not victimized or discriminated against by the RE. Any form of retaliation would be dealt as per the Act or the Other Policies, as may apply. Examples of retaliation may include, but are not limited to, unsubstantiated negative performance evaluation, continued harassment in any form, discriminatory treatment, failure to provide or consider the CT or any witness for a deserved role, title, training, or promotion.

MALICIOUS COMPLAINT:

In case the HR/AIC, on conclusion of the inquiry finds that the allegation was malicious or that the CT has made the complaints knowing it to be false, or has produced any forged / misleading document, it will recommend action to be taken under the Act or the Other Policies, as may apply, after conducting a separate inquiry against the CT who has made the complaint. In all such cases the malicious intent on the part of the CT must be established. Mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof will not attract action against the CT.
